

Commissioners:

Unsolicited calls to my home (or business) are another invasion of my shrinking privacy; the equivalent to the growing SPAM epidemic on my email.

Please do not allow Banks to call me with solicitations; I already receive at least 5 solicitations by mail per week from them already which I don't need or appreciate.

Thanks for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Lynn Wuertemberger